

THE FINANCIAL EXPRESS

Sunday • January 11, 2026

NSU Dept of Architecture celebrates graduates at 26th convocation

North South University (NSU) recently held its 26th Convocation ceremony at the NSU campus, marking a significant academic milestone for both the university and its graduating students, according to a statement.

Chowdhury Rafiqul Abrar, Adviser to the Ministry of Education, attended the ceremony as the convocation chair, while Professor SMA Faiz, Chairman of the University Grants Commission (UGC) of Bangladesh, delivered the convocation address.

Mohammad Anwar Hossen, Member of the UGC, was present as the special guest. A total of 3,322 undergraduate and graduate students were awarded degrees during the ceremony.

Among them, the Department of Architecture proudly celebrated the graduation of 36 students, highlighting the department's continued commitment to academic excellence and professional rigor.

Among the graduating architecture students, five achieved Cum Laude, four earned Magna Cum Laude, and one received the prestigious Summa Cum Laude distinction.

Nahin Iqbal Chowdhury attained the highest CGPA in the Department of Architecture and was awarded Summa Cum Laude, marking an outstanding academic achievement.

Parents and family members of the graduating students were in attendance to celebrate the momentous occasion.