Aziz Al Kaiser nominated as NSU Trust chairman

The North South University (NSU) Board of Trustees (BoT) has nominated Mr. Aziz Al Kaiser for his continuation as the NSU Trust chairman for the tenure 2026-2027, said a press release.

The BoT members, officers and staff, and the NSU community extend their heartfelt congratulations to him on his continuation as the chairman. His continuation reflects the BoT's continued confidence in his leadership, strategic vision, and commitment to NSU's growth and development. Under his leadership, NSU has continued to strengthen its governance, institutional development, academic excellence, and research initiatives, it added. In his remarks, Mr. Aziz Al Kaiser said, "I remain committed to strengthening the university's academic excellence, research, innovation, and global engagement."

NSU Vice-Chancellor Professor Abdul Hannan Chowdhury said; "Mr. Aziz Al Kaiser, with his leadership and commitment to excellence, will continue to guide NSU as we advance our mission in education, research, and global collaboration." Mr. Aziz Al Kaiser is the son of Late Mr. M. A. Hashem, an industrialist, former member of parliament, former chairman of the NSU BoT, and founder of Partex Group. Mr. Kaiser has played a significant role in shaping NSU's development over the years as a member of its BoT. He is also the chairman of Partex Star Group and the immediate past Chairman of City Bank PLC.
