NSU holds spring festival celebration

Staff Correspondent

NORTH South University celebrated the '2024 Spring Festival Celebration Event', the most celebrated event in Chinese culture, on Tuesday and Wednesday on NSU campus in Dhaka.

The event was jointly organized by the Confucius Institute at North South University and the Chinese Embassy in Bangladesh, said a press release.

This event aimed to introduce students to the cultural significance of Chinese New Year and Chinese dumplings while providing them with a hands-on experience of making and tasting dumplings.

Professor Atiqul Islam, NSU vice-chancellor, Junaid Kamal Ahmad, member of the board of trustees at NSU, professor Abdur Rob Khan, NSU treasurer, Bulbul Siddiqi, local director of NSU's Confucius Institute, Ma Xiaoyan, the Chinese director of NSU's Confucius Institute, the representatives of China Construction Seventh Engineering Division Corp Ltd and NSU students attended the event.

Professor Atiqul Islam, Junaid Kamal Ahmad, and many other faculty members visited the event, wished Chinese New Year, and expressed their feelings about the Chinese New Year and the event.

Many students of North South University participated in the event with great joy and enthusiasm. Making dumplings is important in Chinese culture, especially during the Chinese New Year festivities. Students and domestic and foreign teachers from NSU actively participated in dumpling-making and other activities.

The programme's highlight was awarding prizes and certificates to the winners of the 'Welcoming the New Year Hard Pen Calligraphy Competition'.

Professor Abdur Rob Khan handed the prizes to the winners. Many students enthusiastically participated in various activities at the event and achieved numerous Chinese awards.
