

North South University's Orientation Summer 2024 programme conducted a scholarship distribution ceremony for the meritorious freshers in its premises on Saturday. PHOTO: OBSERVER

NSU welcomes freshers, celebrates Orientation Summer 2024

Staff Correspondent

North South University (NSU) on Saturday celebrated the Orientation Summer 2024 in a befitting manner.

Through the colourful event, the university authorities welcomed freshers and acquainted them with the university's culture and academic approach.

In the orientation ceremony, 18 meritorious students were awarded full scholarships for their outstanding performance in the undergraduate (honours) admission test.

Iqbal Sobhan Chowdhury, Editor of The Daily Observer, addressed the function as chief guest with NSU Treasurer and also Pro Vice-Chancellor (In-Charge) Prof Abdur Rob Khan in the chair.

Inspiring students for their future endeavours, Iqbal Sobhan Chowdhury said, "You are the future leaders of the country. You are fortunate enough to be students at this university. NSU is maintaining its quality with its research-based quality education."

Chairman of the NSU Board of Trustees Javed Muneer Ahmad spoke as the guest of honour at the event and Board Member Seema Ahmad as the special guest.

A documentary showcasing various aspects of the university was screened during the programme.

Javed Muneer Ahmad said, "NSU is a unique environment where you can explore, learn, expand yourselves, and achieve things you never thought possible. Take advantage of this time. Move forward positively and build upon the success you have already achieved."

Prof Abdur Rob Khan said, "The university is a multidisciplinary, multi-racial, and diverse place. When you enter the classroom for the first time, you will find many perspectives and backgrounds represented. Beyond the classroom, engage yourself fully in the academic and extracurricular activities to maximise your experience and growth."

NSU Registrar Ahmed Tazmeen delivered the welcome speech.

Dean (AC) of the School of Humanities and Social Sciences Prof SK Tawfique M Haque, Dean of the School of Engineering and Physical Sciences Prof Mohammad Sahadet Hossain, Dean of the School of Business and Economics Prof Helal Ahammad and Dean of the School of Health and Life Sciences Prof Dipak Kumar Mitra introduced their respective schools.

The programme concluded with a cultural performance by members of NSU Shangkritik Shangathan (NSUSS), Sanzida Mahmood Nandita, and Ritu Raj.

