

JULY REVOLUTION

NSU hosts event to pay tribute to martyrs, injured

Daily Sun Report, Dhaka

North South University (NSU) held an event on Friday to pay tribute to the brave martyrs and those injured during the July Revolution of 2024.

The event, which drew a large crowd, included a heartfelt mourning meeting where participants gathered to express their collective grief and respect for those who sacrificed their lives, said a press release.

Teachers, students, officials, and university employees took part in the mourning procession from NSU Shaheed Minar.

The programme began with a recitation from the Holy Quran and a special prayer for the martyrs, followed by the national anthem and a minute of silence.

NSU Treasurer and Pro Vice-Chancellor (acting) Professor Abdur Rob Khan said, "Through the quota reform, the students of Bangladesh have transformed the nation's political landscape with a movement that started as non-political."

"Since the beginning of the movement, our students have stood up against injustice with the utmost ability, so we congratulate the NSU students for making a significant contribution to this victory of the fall of the autocratic government. At the same time, we hold all the revolution's martyrs in our memory with utmost respect,"

Mizanur Rahman, a NSU student, said, "Our NSU staff Abir Bhai was killed in the Narda area on 19 August. I pray for eternal peace of his soul and all the martyrs killed in the movement."

After reminiscing, the students remembered their lost friends through songs and poems, including Aguner Poroshmoni and Mongol Barota. The event ended with a lighting ceremony.

The programme was moderated by Musharrat Hossain, faculty advisor of North South University. Shangkritik Shangathan.