North South University (NSU) hosted its Spring Semester orientation program. A total of 23 students were awarded merit-based 100 percent scholarships for their outstanding results in the undergraduate (honors) admission test in 17 departments of four schools of the university. The semester-wise orientation program, which serves as a significant event for NSU freshmen, aimed to acquaint students with the university's culture and academic approach.

The distinguished Chief Guest of the event was Dr. Junaid Kamal Ahmad, a member of the Board of Trustees at North South University (BOT) and Vice President, of the World Bank; the Special Guest was Yasmin Kamal, also a member of the NSU Board of Trustees; and the Orientation Speaker was Mr. Anisul Hoque, celebrated writer and Managing Editor of Prothom Alo. The session was chaired by Professor Atiqul Islam, Vice-Chancellor, NSU. The program commenced with a recitation from the Holy Quran and the National Anthem, followed by a documentary showcasing the essence of NSU.

NSU Registrar Dr. Ahmed Tazmeen delivered the welcome speech to the new batch of students. He stated, "You will embark on a new journey in life that will determine the course of your life. North South is proud to be your partner in this journey."
