THE three-day Dhaka–China Day 2025 Film Festival began at the North South University in Dhaka on Tuesday, showcasing the spirit of China–Bangladesh cultural exchange through cinema.

Organised jointly by the NSU and the embassy of the People’s Republic of China in Dhaka, the festival marked a celebration of storytelling, heritage, and cross-cultural collaboration, said a press release.

The day began with the screening of the Chinese film ‘The Truth 1’ at the NSU main auditorium. The director of the film, Zhou Wenwubei, also joined virtually, offering remarks on the inspiration behind the film and its cultural context.
