

NSU holds admission test for summer semester

North South University (NSU) on Saturday hosted the admission test for the summer semester-2024 (Undergraduate programme) on its sprawling campus in the city's Bashundhara area.

Some 7,400 students attended the admission test for four schools, i.e., the School of Health and Life Science, the School of Engineering and Physical Sciences, the School of Humanities and Social Sciences, and the School of Business and Economics, says a press release.

The day commenced with the examinations starting at 10 am and concluding at 12:35 pm. The NSU campus was abuzz with youths, brimming with a welcoming atmosphere.

After visiting the exam halls, NSU Vice-Chancellor Professor Atiqul Islam expressed his gratitude to guardians for choosing NSU as the institution for their children's tertiary education.
