

North South University vice-chancellor Professor Atiqul Islam and Chinese embassy cultural counsellor Yue Liwen, along with other guests, inaugurate the China-South Asia Centre for Sociocultural Studies at NSU in Dhaka on Wednesday.

— Press release

NSU welcomes Yunnan delegation

Staff Correspondent

NORTH South University's Confucius Institute organised a photo exhibition titled 'Yunnan: A Many-Splendoured Life,' with the opening ceremony taking place at the NSU Exhibition Hall on Wednesday.

The exhibition was sponsored by the Chinese embassy in Bangladesh, the information office of the Yunnan Provincial People's Government, and the foreign affairs office of the Yunnan government.

An inaugural ceremony for the China-South Asia Center for Sociocultural Studies was also conducted during an official visit of a Chinese delegation, said a press release.

This significant occasion was jointly organised by the Department of Political Science and Sociology, the South Asian Institute of Policy and Governance, and the Confucius Institute of North South University.

China-South Asia Centre for Sociocultural Studies is an interdisciplinary initiative to facilitate the academic study of sociocultural and economic issues through evidence-based and empirical research at North South University.

Special guests of the seminar were Professor Hu Jinming, vice-president of Yunnan University, Kunming, China, and Peng Bin, deputy director general of publicity department of the CPC Yunnan Provincial Party Committee and chairman of Yunnan Provincial Civilisation Office.

The Chinese foreign delegation also included four high officials of the Yunnan provincial government. The vice-chancellor of North South University, Professor Atiqul Islam, and Cultural Counsellor of the Embassy of the People's Republic of China in Bangladesh, Yue Liwen, were also present at the event.

Professor Abdur Rob Khan, treasurer of NSU, Professor Sheikh Tawfique M Haque, dean (IC), School of Humanities and Social Sciences (SHSS), and director, South Asian Institute of Policy and Governance (SIPG), NSU, Bulbul Siddiqi, director, Confucius Institute at NSU and Associate Professor Department of Political Science and Sociology, NSU, Ma Xiaoyan, Chinese director, Confucius Institute at NSU, Harisur Rahman, coordinator of China-South Asia Sociocultural Studies and associate professor in the Media, Communication, and Journalism Programme, were also present at the event.