Architectural exhibition begins at NSU

The Department of Architecture at North South University (NSU) has organised its 20th Architectural Exhibition, titled 'First Step Towards Architecture', which began on August 27.

The week-long exhibition will remain open to visitors until September 3, from 10:00am to 5:00pm, at the NSU Exhibition Hall, says a press statement.

Partnered by Trust Bank and Me Creation, the exhibition is a recurring semester-end tradition that showcases the early creative explorations and academic achievements of architecture students across several key courses, including ARC111, ARC112, ARC213, ARC316, and ARC343.

State Minister for Road Transport and Bridges Habibur Rashid inaugurated the exhibition as the chief guest while Prof Abdul Hannan Chowdhury, Vice Chancellor of North South University, presided over the event. Benajir Ahmed, Member and former chairman of the NSU Board of Trustees, was present as the guest of honour. Prof Nasar U. Ahmed, Pro-Vice Chancellor of NSU, and Architect Shahriar Iqbal Raj, Chairman of the Department of Architecture, spoke at the ceremony.
