CHAIRPERSON of the department of mathematics and physics at North South University Professor Md Mamun Molla has been elected as a fellow of the Bangladesh Academy of Sciences.

Mamun Molla, who joined NSU in 2011, serves as research coordinator for the school of engineering and physical sciences and leads the computational fluid dynamics and high-performance computing research group, said a press release on Thursday.

He was previously inducted as a BAS associate fellow in 2019.

Congratulating him, NSU vice-chancellor Professor Abdul Hannan Chowdhury called the recognition a significant milestone for both Mamun Molla and the university, expressing hope that it would further inspire scientific excellence.

Expressing his gratitude, Mamun Molla said, 'I am deeply honoured by this recognition, which inspires me to pursue further research and contribute to the advancement of science and education in Bangladesh.'
