

THE FINANCIAL EXPRESS

Saturday • January 24, 2026

NSU receives five scholarships from Tianjin University, China

Tianjin University, China, has announced five fully funded scholarship opportunities for students of North South University (NSU)—four PhD scholarships and one Master's scholarship—following a collaboration meeting held on the NSU campus in the city on Wednesday, according to a statement. The scholarship package covers full tuition fees, accommodation, comprehensive medical insurance, and a monthly living allowance of CNY 3,500 for PhD students and CNY 2,500 for Master's students. These scholarships will be awarded for the full duration of the respective academic programmes at Tianjin University. The announcement was made during a high-level meeting between NSU and a delegation from Tianjin University led by Prof. Sun Peizhe, Vice Dean of the School of Environmental Science and Engineering. Vice-Chancellor Professor Abdul Hannan Chowdhury, Pro Vice-Chancellor Dr. Nasar

U. Ahmed, along with deans, directors, and senior academic and administrative officials of NSU, attended the programme. During the meeting, both institutions exchanged institutional overviews and discussed avenues for future collaboration.