NSU Royals champion of NSU admin officials' football

NSU Royals clinched the champions' trophy of the Football Tournament for the North South University (NSU) Administrative Officials following a 2-0 win over NSU Kings in the final on Wednesday. The tournament was arranged by the university authority to soothe the stress of the employees. NSU Vice Chancellor Prof Atiqul Islam, as the chief guest of the award programme, handed over the prizes among the winners after the final. Treasurer Prof Abdur Rob Khan and School of Engineering and Physical Sciences (SEPS) Dean Prof Dr Javed Bari were also there. Earlier, a total of four teams of officials took part in the tournament.
