

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 14, 2026, PAUSH 30, 1432 BS

NSU, UNDP host workshop on AI

Staff Correspondent

NORTH South University's department of management, in collaboration with UNDP Bangladesh, organised a focused workshop titled 'Responsible AI in practice: Civil society, governance, and accountability in Bangladesh' at the SBE dean's conference room on its campus in Dhaka on Tuesday.

The session brought together Sheela Tasneem Haq, UNDP Bangladesh, Zulkarin Jahangir, NSU, Syed Ish-tiaque Ahmed, University of Toronto, Shafiqul Alam, Victoria University of Wel-lington, and Quazi Tafsirul Islam, NSU.

The workshop was chaired by Ziaul Haq Adnan, associate professor and chair, department of management, NSU.

Zulkarin Jahangir, assis-tant professor, NSU, noted,

'Responsible AI is not only a technical issue but a govern-ance challenge. With-out ethical frameworks and local context, AI risks deepening existing ine-qualties.'

The workshop concluded with an interactive discus-sion on how academia, NGOs, and development partners can jointly promote more responsible, ethical, and accountable AI prac-tices in Bangladesh.

Guests, speakers and participants pose for a group photo during a workshop on North South University campus in Dhaka on Tuesday.

— Press release