NEW AGE
Thursday, October 19, 2023

NSU hosts summer orientation

North South University students receive merit-based scholarships and free studentship during its Summer Semester orientation Programme in Dhaka on Sunday. — Press release

North South University hosted its summer semester orientation programme, welcoming over 2,600 students who were admitted for undergraduate (honours) degrees across 16 departments in the university's four schools.

Among the students, 66 were awarded merit-based scholarships for their exceptional performance in the admission tests. North South University grants free studentship to 40 students admitted under Freedom Fighter's quota.

The semester-wise orientation programme, which serves as a significant event for NSU freshmen, aimed to acquaint students with the university's culture and academic approach.

Javed Muneer Ahmad, chairman of North South University's Board of Trustees (BoT), was chief guest on the occasion while Yasmin Kamal, BoT member, graced the event as special guest. The session was chaired by Professor Atiqul Islam. The programme commenced with the national anthem, followed by a documentary showcasing the essence of NSU.

Ahmed Tazmeen, NSU's registrar, delivered a warm welcome speech to the fresh batch of students. Helal Ahammad, dean of the School of Business and Economics; Abdur Rob Khan, dean of the School of Humanities and Social Sciences; Javed Bari, dean of the School of Engineering and Physical Sciences; and Hasan Mahmud Reza, dean of the School of Health and Life Sciences introduces their respective schools.

The programme concluded with a captivating cultural performance by members of the North South University Shangskritik Shangathan, said a press release.