

North South University holds seminar on decent work deficits in manufacturing

Helal Ahammad, dean, School of Business and Economics, North South University, Dr Kingshuk Sarkar, associate professor and area chair, General Management and Public Policy, Goa Institute of Management, India, attend a seminar organised by North South University in the capital on Thursday.

Daily Sun Report, Dhaka

The Office of External Affairs of North South University (NSU) hosted a seminar titled 'Decent Work Deficits in Manufacturing Activities in South Asia: The Way Ahead' on Thursday.

The seminar brought together a distinguished panel of academic leaders, each offering profound insights into the challenges and potential solutions for ensuring decent work standards within the manufacturing sectors of South Asia, said a press release.

The event was a forum that featured discussions on sustainable strategies to address the decent work deficits that have long affected the region's manufacturing industries.