NSU celebrates Victory Day

Staff Correspondent

NORTH South University commemorated Victory Day 2023 with a vibrant celebration, featuring a discussion session and cultural programme on Monday.

Mofidul Hoque, a renowned researcher, essayist, and founding trustee of the Bangladesh liberation war museum, was present as chief guest, said a press release.

The event was presided over by professor Atiqul Islam, vice-chancellor of NSU, joined by esteemed deans, directors, department heads, senior officials, faculty members, and enthusiastic students.

Professor M Ismail Hosain from economics department extended a warm welcome with an inaugural address, setting the tone for the event.

Keynote speaker Mofidul Hoque delivered a compelling speech, emphasising the significance of Victory Day. He urged for a unified stance against corruption, emphasising the need to establish a fair and equitable Bangladesh.

Prof Atiqul Islam echoed sentiments of unity and remembrance in his address to the audience.

Following the engaging discussion session, NSU Sangskritik Sangathan presented a lively cultural programme, adding an artistic flair to the commemoration.
