

North South University signs memorandum of understanding with 12 universities as part of the 2024 Forum of University Presidents from Hubei in China and South Asia held on Thursday. — Press release

NSU signs MoU with 12 universities

Staff Correspondent

NORTH South University has signed memorandum of understanding with 12 universities as part of the 2024 Forum of University Presidents from Hubei in China and South Asia held on October 17, said a press release on Sunday.

The MoU, signed with institutions, including Mid-West University, Sabaragamuwa University of Sri Lanka, Nepalese Army Institute of Health Sciences, China Three Gorges University, Hebei University, Yangtze University, State Conservatory of Uzbekistan, Hebei Normal University, Wuhan Conservatory of Music, Huanggang Normal University, Wuhan University of Science and Technology, and Hubei University of Education, aims to promote mutual development in education, scientific research, and talent cultivation.