

NSU excels in time's higher education's subject rankings

City Desk

North South University once again demonstrated its academic excellence by securing impressive rankings in the Times Higher Education World University Rankings 2024 by subject.

The rankings were officially unveiled on Friday in London, shedding light on NSU's remarkable achievements in various disciplines, said a press release.

NSU emerged as a frontrunner in five distinct subject areas, reaffirming its position as a trailblazer in higher education. Among these accomplishments, the Business and Economics category stood out, with NSU achieving a commendable ranking in the 501-600 band. This accomplishment places NSU at the forefront of all universities, both public and private, in Bangladesh. Among the 11 subject areas evaluated by Times Higher Education, NSU dominated the private university sector in the social sciences domain, securing a prestigious ranking within the 501-600 band.

Furthermore, NSU continued its winning streak by leading all private universities in both computer science and engineering, securing positions in the 601-800 band for both subject areas.
