

Vice-chancellor of the North South University Professor Abdul Hannan Chowdhury, among others, attends a seminar at the NSU in Dhaka on Sunday. — Press release

NSU VC underscores role of individuals in fostering peace

Staff Correspondent

VICE-chancellor of the North South University Professor Abdul Hannan Chowdhury at a seminar at the NSU in Dhaka on Sunday emphasised the vital role of individuals in fostering peace within society and the nation.

He also underscored the need to build a more diverse and harmonious community, stressing that humanity must remain the ultimate focus in all efforts toward peace, said a press release.

He made the remarks at the seminar on 'global peace and harmony: Bangladesh's role in UN peacekeeping' organised by the NSU Centre for Peace Studies to observe the International Day of Peace 2025.

Bangladesh Institute of Peace Support Operation Training commandant Major General Hussain Muhammad Masihur Rahman was present as keynote speaker while retired major general Fazle Elahi Akbar, security adviser to Bangladesh Nationalist Party chairperson Khaleda Zia, was present as special guest at the seminar.

Panellists from the Bangladesh Army, police and academia enriched the session with their insights.