

An official from the NSU administration visiting a hall during admission test of North South University (NSU) on Saturday

NSU holds admission test for Spring semester

North South University (NSU) on Saturday held the admission test for the Spring 2024 semester on its campus in the city, says a statement.

The event saw approximately 6,000 eager students vying for admission into various departments, supported by a dedicated team of around 800 faculty and administrative staff members who ensured a smooth and efficient admission process.

The examination started at 10 am and concluded at 1pm. The NSU campus was abuzz with activities, brimming with a welcoming atmosphere.

Parents played a crucial role as they stood by their children, offering unwavering support and staying on the campus throughout the rigorous examination.

Members of the NSU administration, including Prof Dr M Ismail Hossain from the Department of Economics, Dr Ahmed Tazmeen, Registrar, Prof Dr Hasan Mahmud Reza, dean of the School of Health and Life Sciences, Prof Dr Javed Bari, dean of the School of Engineering & Physical Sciences, Prof Dr Abdur Rob Khan, dean of the School of Humanities and Social Sciences, Prof Dr KMA Salam, director of the Office of Admissions (undergrad), and Dr Gour Gobinda Goswami, director of the Office of Student Affairs, were seen visiting various rooms to ensure integrity in the examination process.