

Javed Muneer re-elected chairman of NSU Board of Trustees

Daily Sun Report,
Dhaka

Javed Muneer Ahmad has been re-elected as the chairman of the Board of Trustees (BOT) of North South University (NSU) Trust for 2024-2025, effective 1 July 2024.

The announcement was made during the 13th annual general meeting of the NSU Trust on 30 June 2024, said a press release.

This marks Javed Ahmad's second term as chairman following the chancellor's appointment of the re-constituted NSU Board on 16 August 2022.

A founding member of NSU, Ahmad's first tenure as chairman (2023-24) was noted for establishing transparent and integrity-driven policies, putting strong focus on institutional governance practices and championing a roadmap to achieving higher educational standards and research practices at NSU, the statement added.

Upon being elected as chairman for the second term, Ahmad expressed his gratitude for the support he received from the NSU Board of Trustees.

He also acknowledged the honour and responsibility of representing NSU's Board of Trustees, students, parents, faculty, and management.
